

Residents and fellows: Is locum tenens right for you?

Quick facts about residents and fellows:

- More than 50% of residents start job hunting during their last year of residency
- Over half of residents practice in the same state as their residency, making local locums assignments a great option

GEOGRAPHIC LOCATION

WORK/LIFE BALANCE

are the top two motivators for residents and fellows

60%

of physicians with locum tenens experience started working locums within 10 years of residency

The majority of residents and fellows want

FLEXIBILITY, CONTROL & AUTONOMY
over their work schedule

Over half of residents prefer to practice in COMMUNITIES
of 50,000 or more

50% owe more than $150K

in student loans once they are out of residency. Working locum tenens makes it possible to earn extra income and pay off medical school debt quicker.

After personal referrals, LinkedIn is a preferred networking and job search resource

Did you know there are many

BENEFITS

to working locum tenens right out of residency?

Earn extra income

Have flexibility and control over your schedule

Experience working in various clinical settings

Opportunities to practice medicine all over the country

WORK LOCUMS WITH WEATHERBY

Our Weatherby Healthcare team has experience working with residents and fellows in all specialties. We're here to help find you the best fit, and we'll streamline the entire locums process start to finish, from credentialing and licensing to housing and travel.

To learn more about how you could benefit from locum tenens opportunities while finishing up residency or a fellowship, visit weatherbyhealthcare.com/resources/new-doctors. or contact us!